Nice and Region - Nature and Sensations

Price : 440 €

*Price per person

In the hinterland of Nice, between rolling hills and steep valleys, cycling becomes much more than a simple means of locomotion. It's an invitation to discover the raw beauty of nature, to savor the freshness of the air and to feel the gratifying effort of climbing winding slopes.

A day to suit you!

Your tailor-made cycling trip, accompanied by a former professional cyclist, just for you!

Whether you're a family, a group of friends, a couple or on your own, you decide the route and the objective for the day: a performance, a mountain pass, a time trial, or discovering, sightseeing and wandering.

Whether you're looking for a ride along the coast, or a ride in the hinterland, anything goes! You can visit the villages of the region: St Paul de Vence, Eze, etc.

If you're more of a mountain person, then head for the back country, with its more or less challenging passes.

The cime de la Bonnette is a mecca for climbers, perched at an altitude of 2802m, and the asphalt road leading up to it is the highest road in France! Breathtaking panoramas await you.

Tour de France fan? Climb the Col de la Couillole on the stage that the yellow jersey and the peloton will be following this summer during the Tour de France!

You can hire a road bike for an additional charge.
